

EURO-FUNDING

This year, we celebrate a very special milestone at Euro-Funding: our 25th anniversary. It is a moment of joy and reflection, where we look back to appreciate the journey we've taken and the impact we've achieved, as we move forward with the same energy that marked the beginning of Euro-Funding's story.

Since our inception, our mission has always been clear: to be leaders in securing public funding and generating tax savings, supporting our clients in their most ambitious projects, and helping them grow and innovate. Over these 25 years, we have had the privilege of collaborating with numerous companies, universities, foundations, public administrations, technology centres, and research organisations. Our impact has extended internationally, bringing our expertise to clients in various countries and sectors. This journey would not have been possible without the vision of our founder, Víctor Tarruella, who laid the foundations for what Euro-Funding is today, leaving behind a legacy that continues to thrive.

This anniversary not only marks the passage of time but also underscores our commitment to the values that define us: excellence, innovation, and a personalised approach to every long-term project. During this time, we have worked tirelessly to achieve our goals and create a meaningful impact on the economic fabric.

Moreover, we have embraced ESG principles, always seeking a balance between caring for the environment, supporting people, and managing our activities responsibly. We aim to continue growing sustainably, leaving a positive footprint in the communities where we operate and on the planet we all share. But we are not stopping here. The future is full of opportunities, and at Euro-Funding, we are more committed than ever to being a strategic ally on the path to success.

On this special occasion, I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude. We know that none of this would have been possible without the trust of clients like you, alongside the dedication of those who have been part of the Euro-Funding family and the colleagues who continue to contribute actively.

We invite you to celebrate this 25th anniversary with us. Throughout the year, we will be organising events and activities, and we would be delighted to have you join us.
